Directions for quick write: Using the short story, "The Short and Happy Life of Francis Macomber" by Ernest Hemmingway, identify a character who was significant to the plot development of the story. Make a claim identifying the change in this character throughout the story and how his/her development or change affects the plot. Support this claim using at least two quotes, explanations from the text, and provide a concluding sentence.

1. Make sure to TAG the text, state the character that has undergone change, and explain HOW it affects the plot
2. Provide one piece of textual evidence to back up your claim.
3. Introduce this quote and cite the quote using page numbers (Hemingway 2)
4. Interpret the quote in your own words
5. Connect the quote to your claim using 'because'
